

#11 HAVEN HILL ALPACAS

Judy Leon & Kim Atkins
20 Stevenson Road
Greenwich, NY 12834
518-677-5111 (home)
518-588-8655
www.alpacasofhavenhill.com

Our friendly animals are ready to welcome you to Haven Hill! We have nine alpacas in colors from white to black, as well as fiber-producing rabbits and dogs. Horses, cats, and chinchillas live here too. Our farm store, the Alpaca Attic, provides a bird's eye view of gardens and fields, as well as a great selection of alpaca products. An easy felting project will be demonstrated, with kits available to take home. Refreshments available.

#12 ENSIGN BROOK FARM

Karin & Eric Kennedy
1930 County Rt. 113
Greenwich, NY 12834
518-692-8769

The Kennedy family would like to invite you to see the Romney & Cheviot spring lambs. Sat. 12-4 we will be hosting the Sheep-N-Kids 4-H Club. They will be demonstrating spinning and dyeing wool. Sunday 12-4 we will be shearing. Maple syrup from Moses Sap House will be for sale as well as wool related items, fleece, art, snacks and more!

#13 ALPACAS OF EASTON

Kate & Brian Ziehm
11822 NY Rt. 40
Easton, NY 12154
518-692-8684
www.alpacasofeaston.com
catherineziehm@yahoo.com

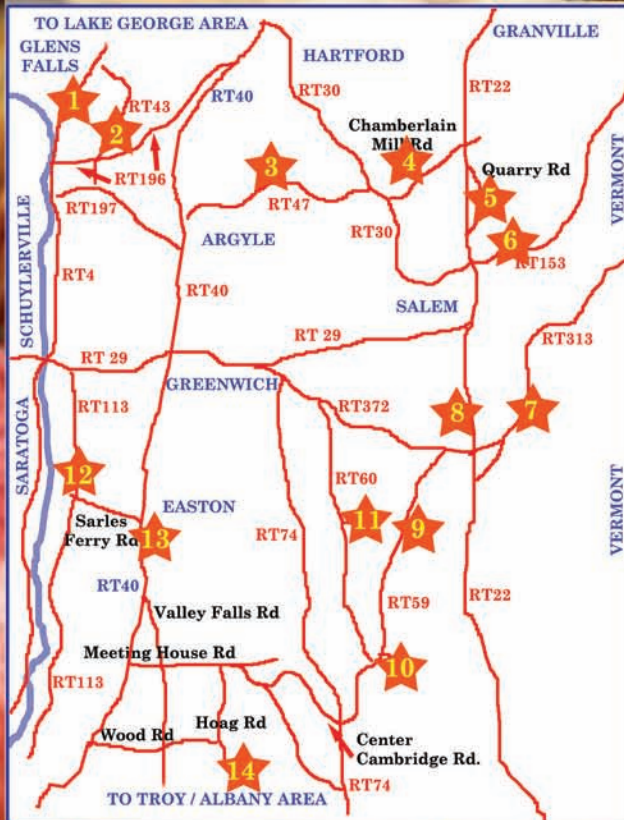

Alpacas of Easton is a small herd of select alpacas ranging in color from white to true black. We have a small fiber store where visitors can purchase our own home grown yarn, sweaters, hats, mittens and more. We will be offering demonstrations on spinning and dyeing yarns with naturally made dyes. Visitors will be given the opportunity to interact with our alpacas. Come, relax, and enjoy!

#14 SUNSET RIDGE ALPACAS

John & Vicki Askew
292 Hoag Rd.
Valley Falls, NY 12185
518-692-2083
www.SunsetRidgeAlpacas.com
info@sunsetridgealpacas.com

Lots of hands-on time gets you up close with these wonderful animals and an alpaca agility course lets you show off what you've learned. The gift shop and fiber arts buildings hold special treasures. Children's crafts entertain the kids while you shop and talk with the hand crafters. Come out, enjoy the animals and bring all your questions about fiber and the alpaca business. Receive a FREE GIFT for visiting our farm!

16th ANNUAL
NEW YORK'S
WASHINGTON COUNTY FIBER TOUR
THE FIBERS OF LIFE
BEGIN ON OUR FARMS
FREE EVENT

May 3 & 4, 2008
10am to 5pm Rain or Shine
This is a self guided tour

Visit
www.WashingtonCountyFiberTour.org

Car or Bike Tour through the Battenkill Valley
Overnight Packages Available for options visit
www.visitbattenkillvalley.com
or Call 677- 5945

Washington County
Where life is a journey
Washington County Tourism Association
383 Broadway, Fort Edward, NY 12828
Call toll-free 888.203.8622 www.washingtoncounty.org

#1 CRAZY AS A LOOM

Hilary Cooper-Kenny
3835 State Rt. 4
Kingsbury, NY 12839
518-747-4147
www.crazyasaloom.com

In a renovated 200 year old home, in the spirit of recycling, rag rugs, placemats, table runners, totes, and more are woven on antique floor looms, using mill ends, and remnants of the textile industry. Come browse a large selection of hand-wovens and see how it is done...from raw fabric, to functional and beautiful floor coverings, in the traditional way of rag rug weaving. Try it yourself!

#2 HOLLEY HILL FARM

Jeff and Lisa Cornell
PO Box 41
Hartford, NY 12838
(518)747-7141
holleyhill@roadrunner.com
www.holleyhillfarm.com

Welcome to this old farmstead in the town of Hartford. Visit our sheep, angora goats, chickens and cows. See old farm equipment, tour the maple sugar house and watch wool being prepared the old fashioned way. There will be roving, hand dyed yarn and woolen products for sale as well as a complete line of maple products. From Hudson Falls go east on Rt. 196 about 6mi. Turn left onto County Rt. 43 at Adamsville. We are the first farm on the right.

#3 SHEEPY HOLLOW FARM

Michelle Crossman
493 County Rt. 47
Argyle, NY 12809
518-638-6382

Sheepy Hollow features Romney and rare Navajo Churro sheep. Spring lambs, fresh cuts of lamb, fleeces, roving, handspun yarn, and woolen items available for purchase as well as hand crafted sheep's milk soaps and lotions. We offer ongoing weaving, spinning, and dyeing demos. Information, recipes, and children's activities offered free of charge.

#4 SIMPLE PLEASURES FARM

Sheila Blais & Nancy Mansson
588 Chamberlain Mill Rd.
Salem, NY 12865
518-854-9543
sheilablais@yahoo.com
www.simplepleasuresyarns.com

Simple Pleasures is home to a "Handspinners" flock of sheep and Angora goats. We produce our own yarn and roving, both will be available to purchase. We welcome you to learn about our animals and visit our studio.

#5 QUARRY RIDGE ALPACAS

Faith & Herb Perkins
453 Quarry Rd.
Salem, NY 12865
518-854-7008
faith@qralpacas.com
www.quarryridgealpacos.com

At Quarry Ridge Alpacos, you will find: Award-winning breeding stock, pet quality alpacas, designer yarns and rovings, hand knit products, livestock guard dogs, friendly people and an awesome view. From Rt.22 just North of Salem, take Quarry Rd. 2mi North or 1/2mi south to farm.

#6 FIBER KINGDOM

Sylvia Graham
137 East Broadway
PO Box 654
Salem, New York 12865
(518)854-7225
sfgraham@verizon.net

Two renovated 18th century barns house Angora rabbits, spinning shop, weaving/felting studio. See looms, spinning wheels, tools, books, yarns, fibers, dyes, knitting & felting needles, as well as ongoing demonstrations of many fiber crafts. Just 0.6 mi east of traffic light (rte 22) in village of Salem.
www.fiberkingdom.com

#7 BATTENKILL LLAMAS

Michael Rice & Irene Roth
1278 State Rt.313
Cambridge, NY 12816
518-677-3255

Operating since 1998, this small family farm raises llamas for fiber and for show. Fiber spinning demonstrations will be available as well as fiber products for sale.

#8 EAGLE CREST FARM

Pat & Lloyd Wetsel
65 County Rt. 78
Cambridge, NY 12816
518-677-5776

We hope to have a baby alpaca again this year for the fiber tour. We will for the forth year raffle off a 20" bear. Come hug our PR baby alpaca from last fall, see our yarn, and enjoy our alpacas.

#9 ENCHANTED FARM

John & Jane Bates
1542 County Rt.59
Cambridge, NY 12816
518-677-3162
woodduck2@verizon.net

Enchanted Farm and Fine Art Studio is less than a mile outside the village of Cambridge, the 1st farm on the left on Rt 59. We plan on having a newborn alpaca (or two), and you can always plan on a dry kiss from Kioti our PR man! We have fiber and our own yarn as well as alpacas for sale. There will also be art work for sale. Worth the trip!

#10 BIG RED ALPACAS

Kim Davidson & Carolyn Campbell
Cambridge, NY 12816
518-677-5182
www.bigredalpacos.com
info@bigredalpacos.com

Big Red Alpacos – A new farm to the area, Big Red Alpacos specializes in ultra- fine colored fiber worthy of your finest clothing and fiber arts. Our farm is a growing labor of love representing excellent bloodlines. We welcome visitors year round. Find us about 1.5 miles up Conley Rd. off of Rt. 59 (Center Cambridge Rd) (518)708-0809.